The Best American Families Use Cole's Hot Blast Range

The housewife who has her own work to do (who has no servants) is the one who appreciates the many "handy features" embodied only in this range.

The manufacturer of this range claims to have embodied features suggested by users—the housewives—when making this marvel of range construction.

Cole's Hot Blast Steel Range embodies every feature of convenience and durability contained in-

Every malleable range made. Every cast iron range made.

Every other cooking stove or range at any price.

In addition, there are (14) special and patented features embodied in Cole's Hot Blast Range which are not to be had in any other make or style range or stove at any price.

Consider this, and then we believe you will cease to wonder why we persist in calling to your attention this range—the first real improvement made in 20 years in range construction.

We want you to examine it in every detail—We want you to note its finish—its appearance—then we want to show you how convenient it is how simple to operate.

We want you to buy Cole's Hot Blast Range, because we know it will please you. Furnished with plain or polished top.
